State:

- Governor Newsom announced that California anticipates another large increase within the next 1-2 weeks from the Thanksgiving activities and gatherings. He stated if these trends continue, California will need to take drastic action, including a potential Stay-at Home-Order for regions with concerning hospitalizations and ICU capacity.
- The Governor announced the following immediate support and relief:
 - Automatic 3-month extension for taxpayers with less than $1 million in sales tax
 - Expand interest free payment agreements for larger companies (with up to $5 million in taxable sales)
 - Expand interest free payment options for larger industries heavily impacted by operations restrictions including bars, restaurants, hair salons, and more.
- Small Businesses:
 - Main Street Hiring Tax Credit which authorizing $100 million in hiring tax credit for qualified small businesses. The credit is equal to $1,000 per qualified employee, up to $100,000 for each small business employer. The application opens tomorrow, December 1. A full list of existing state support for businesses can be found here.
 - 500 million dollars in COVID relief funds
 - Grants up to $25,000 for small business
- Governor Newsom announced California anticipates getting approximately 327,000 doses in mid-December, with the second doses likely to follow within 3 weeks.
